Team Name: _____ Division (circle one) Coed/Men's/Women's

Manager's Name: _____

Address: _____

WSU ID#: _____ Phone: _____

Email: _____

General Manager/Captain responsibilities include:

- Represent, or see that the team is represented, at all intramural modules for managers, sportsmanship/disciplinary matters and/or protests. Cooperate fully with all intramural employees while performing their duties.
- See that all players sign the official team roster (ASSUMPTION OF RISK AND RELEASE OF LIABILITY) form BEFORE they participate in intramural competition. TEAMS ARE PERMITTED TO ADD ELIGIBLE PLAYERS THROUGHOUT THE LEAGUE SEASON AND PLAYOFF TOURNAMENT. Once you have played for one team you may not switch to another team. Additions to team rosters can also be made on the scoresheet at any playing site.
- Be sure all players on your team have knowledge of, and meet the eligibility regulations. If in doubt about a player's eligibility, have that person complete an eligibility petition form prior to participation.
- Study procedures governing participation in the program and the rules of each sport. Be sure that your players are also aware of these rules. Inform and educate all players and spectators affiliated with your team about the sportsmanship rating system.
- Notify all team members of the date, place, time and color of jersey of each contest the individual and/or team plays. (Teams are responsible for checking the playoff tournament schedules in person). Schedules and brackets are posted on the intramural bulletin boards located outside the Smith 101 Office and on the intramural website at imsports.wsu.edu.
- If a conflict arises with your scheduled league or playoff contest, notify the intramural program if you choose to forfeit or reschedule. All arrangements must be completed and approved by the intramural program. The intramural program will not accept verbal agreements between opponents.
- Appoint a responsible member of your team to serve as the designated team captain if electing not to yourself.
